

Andrea Luecke

Class of 1993

M.S. University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee Nonprofit Management and Leadership

B.S. University of Minnesota – Twin Cities Cultural Studies and Comparative Literature

Andrea is a transformational clean energy CEO and climate advocate who is passionate about creating innovation in the nonprofit and government sector and bringing clean energy equity to all. She was the President and Executive Director at The Solar Foundation, an independent research and education nonprofit with a national focus. Andrea has strengthened disaster-stricken areas and climate sensitive areas. Having been the Executive Producer for the distinguished Clean Energy for Biden group, Andrea was in charge of President Biden's Clean Energy for America Inaugural Ball.

